VILLA STARTS SOUTH TO PUSH TORREON ATTACK

Huerta Takes Wilson's Act Coolly—Foreigners Crowd Trains Going to Vera Cruz

MEXICO CITY, Feb. 4.—Rebels attacked Tampico and Torreon simultaneously this afternoon. When the news was received here President Huerta prepared to move at once to Chapultepec Castle with his family. Cadets from the National Military Academy were ordered to act as escorts and guards for the dictator, his wife and children.

The attack on Tampico is strong, and at last reports a desperate battle was raging.

The Torreon struggle is reported as fierce, with the rebels already in the city's outskirts. Should the city fall the rebels will probably move at once on Zacatecas, the last remaining defense of the capital.

HUERTA RECEIVED NEWS OF WILSON'S ACTION COOLLY

(United Press Staff Correspondent.) MEXICO CITY, Feb. 4.—President Huerta remained cool today in the face of the crisis resulting from the lifting of the embargo on arms yesterday by the administration at Washington. He received Charge d'Affaires O'Shaughnessy cordially after President Wilson's order was announced here. Today he was sequestered in his residence, where he is supposedly preparing a statement.

Foreigners are leaving today on every train for Vera Cruz. Those remaining are instructed to be ready for a summons to the rendezvous agreed upon during the recent preparations for trouble here. The rendezvous is being provisioned and prepared for defense in the event of an anti-foreign outbreak. It is believed here that the rebels will at once move on Torreon, and that an attack on the capital is now only a matter of days.

Jesus Flores Magon, Gen. Huerta's personal representative, who consulted John Lind in Vera Cruz recently, declared that President Wilson has made a terrible mistake. He said he did not talk to Lind regarding the removal of the embargo, but he is sorry now that he did not warn him of the probable consequences. He declared that as a matter of fact the embargo was really secretly raised some time ago. This assertion is generally accepted here as true, the popular view being that the rebels have for a long time been getting all the arms and ammunition they could pay for, therefore he does not believe the new order will help much. The news was received here quietly.

SHIPMENT OF RIFLES AND AMMUNITION TOMORROW

NEW ORLEANS, Feb. 4.—Thirteen thousand nine hundred rifles and 15,300,000 rounds of ammunition are being packed for shipment to the Mexican rebels. These munitions of war were held up here several months ago, but are now released by President Wilson's raising of the arms embargo. They will be shipped to Mexico tomorrow.

VILLA ORDERS VAST SHIPMENT OF MUNITIONS OVER BORDER

JUAREZ, Feb. 4.—General Villa lost no time after President Wilson's proclamation raising the arms embargo, in taking advantage of the opportunity to arm his men. He at once arranged for the immediate delivery of a million rounds of ammunition, and ordered more in carload lots. He sent his legal adviser, Aguirre Benavides, to El Paso, to thank President Wilson through General Hugh Scott, for raising the arms embargo, and to ask release of one million and a half rounds of ammunition, five thousand rifles and several rapid fire guns recently seized by American troops. General Scott, it is said, will now stop searching persons crossing the border, since he has been formally notified that President Wilson has raised the arms embargo.

General Villa then started by train for Chihuahua city to hasten operations against Torreon. He will be joined at Chihuahua by General Obregon with five thousand rebels from Sonora.

Wilson's Proclamation Raising Arms Embargo

Whereas, by a proclamation by the President, issued on March 14, 1912, under a joint resolution of congress, approved by the President on the same day, it was declared that there existed in Mexico conditions of domestic violence which were promoted by the use of arms or munitions of war procured from the United States; and

Whereas, by the joint resolution above mentioned it thereupon became unlawful to export arms or munitions of war to Mexico, except under such limitations and exceptions as the President should prescribe,

Now, therefore, I, Woodrow Wilson, President of the United States of America, hereby declare and proclaim that, as the conditions changed, and it is desirable to place the United States with reference to the exportation of arms or munitions of war to Mexico in the same position as other powers, the said proclamation is hereby revoked.

region with five thousand rebels from Sonora.

REBEL LEADERS CONFIDENT OF EARLY END OF WAR

General Villa and other rebel leaders at Juarez received the news of the raising of the embargo with rejoicing, and they declared that the Mexican war will soon be ended. Villa said his ability to procure unlimited arms would multiply the rebel victories, and was just as confident that the news from Washington would discourage and demoralize the Federal troops, so that a speedy termination of the internal strife among Mexicans was in sight.

PART OF GUAYMAS GARRISON DEFECTS AND JOINS REBELS

DOUGLAS, Ariz., Feb. 4.—Unconfirmed reports were received here today to the effect that 200 federals of the Guaymas garrison have joined the rebels, after a spirited fight with the loyal federals who sought to prevent their defection. They deserted because they have not been paid.

Governor Jose Maytorena returned to Hermosillo today from a trip to Sinaloa state with Gen. Carranza. He expects Carranza to reach Hermosillo within a few days.

SKULL AND CROSS-BONES FOR LIQUOR BOTTLES URGED

NEW YORK, Feb. 4.—A bill to compel brewers, vintners and distillers to put the skull and crossbones label on every bottle of alcoholic drink will be introduced in the legislature.

The New York Methodist preachers endorsed the measure, which has been prepared by William H. Anderson of the Anti-Saloon League. Scientific statements of the evils of drink are also to be printed on the labels.

$21,000 FOR ISPAHAN RUG

NEW YORK, Feb. 4.—The last of the rugs of the Agopian collection has been sold at auction here, bringing the total to $192,502. It was one of the famous old Ispahhan rugs, the oldest of these famous eastern weaves, which brought the highest price. This went to a dealer for $21,000. Former Senator W. A. Clark paid $13,600 for an Ispahhan court carpet of the same period.

TOKIO HAPPY AT AMENDMENT DEFEAT

Looks for Early Settlement of Difficulties—Bryan to Ask for Delay

TOKIO, Feb. 4.—Much satisfaction has been expressed here over the action of the American House of Representatives in turning down the Hayes amendment to the Immigration bill. The fact that the majority was so large was especially gratifying in Tokio official circles. The opinion is generally expressed that it foreshadows a settlement of all difficulties between the Tokio and Washington governments.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 4.—Secretary of State Bryan tomorrow will make a direct appeal to the House Immigration committee to not consider any Asiatic exclusion bills until the negotiations now in progress with Japan are concluded. He will explain the details of the latest new treaty proposals.

PIONEER BAKER DEAD BY OWN HAND

Body of J. G. Schirm Found in Bed—Bullet Hole in His Head

This morning the body of J. G. Schirm, a pioneer baker, was found in his room at 1005 West Fourth street. Schirm was dead, a suicide. On the bed beside him was a revolver, and in his forehead the wound caused by the bullet.

Schirm was a baker at Orange twenty-five or thirty years ago, and later moved to Santa Ana, where he was in the bakery business for years. For a long time he has been living in a room in a long building back of the house at 1005 West Fourth street, which he owns.

Schirm had not been seen about the place for two or three days, and this morning W. J. Cozad made an investigation. On looking into Schirm's room he saw the dead body on the bed. City Marshal Jerriam and Officer Lacy were called by Cozad, and later the coroner took charge of the remains. The condition of the body is such that it is thought death occurred probably Saturday night. None of those living in the vicinity remember hearing any shot.

AKED TO QUIT AS FEDERATION HEAD

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 4.—After declaring as absurd the demand that he resign the presidency of the San Francisco Church Federation because he had declared his disbelief in the doctrine of the immaculate conception of Christ, Dr. Charles Aked said this afternoon that he will probably comply.

Aked said he did not care for the office anyway and that he only accepted it because it had been unanimously offered and he thought it might strengthen the federation. He declared that despite the disapproval of other clergymen he must retain his stand and express his true convictions.

SCORES USE OF SAN FRANCISCO FIREARMS IN STRIKES

Labor Secretary Wilson Would Have Legislation Against Such Procedure

OPPOSES USING SLEUTH AGENCIES IN STRIKES

Department for Wage Earners, Says Secretary in First Annual Report

WASHINGTON, Feb. 4.—In his first annual report, made public last night, Secretary Wilson of the department of labor asks for legislation by congress which will prevent the interstate transportation of firearms or armed men for use in connection with labor controversies.

Secretary Wilson has long been an ardent champion of union labor, and his conduct of the department thus far has caused considerable comment because of his pronounced views on this subject.

In the recommendations contained in his annual report, however, he has gone further in support of organized labor than on any other occasion. He severely condemns the use of firearms in connection with strikes and incidentally censures the use of detective agencies in such controversies.

Text of Report

"The use of firearms, in a species of private warfare in connection with labor strikes, calls for serious consideration. Groups of men on both sides, without military or police authority for it, have used firearms with fatal effect in the coal strike in southern Colorado.

"These arms and the ammunition have doubtless been procured through interstate commerce and many of the armed men are said to have been imported into Colorado from other states through a business concern engaged commercially across state lines in supplying corporations with an armed and trained private soldiery or police in numbers running into hundreds and even thousands.

"In connection with the Pere Marquette strike in Michigan, armed guards, furnished by agencies in other states supplying men to take the place of local strikers, accompanied those men to Grand Rapids.

"They were there turned back by the United States marshal under instructions from the district judge. In the Calumet copper mining region armed guards, under contract with the employers, were forwarded to the locality by agencies in other states.

"In view of the facts in these three cases and of the well-known fact that detective agencies are to a greater or less extent engaged commercially in supplying groups of armed men across state lines, the department recommends that congress take action within its constitutional limitations to regulate this business in the interest of public peace and order."

$20,000,000 PROJECT TO END CHINESE FLOODS

NEW YORK, Feb. 4.—Plans for the prevention of floods in the Wai River valley of China, probably the greatest humanitarian project ever undertaken by the American Red Cross, are now under way.

A telegram yesterday from Miss Mabel Boardman, chairman of the executive committee of the Red Cross, authorized the J. G. White Engineering Corporation of New York to announce that it had been designated not only to do the work but to raise the $20,000,000 necessary to finance it.

HOTEL MAN FIRST TO PAY HIS INCOME TAX

CHICAGO, Feb. 4.—The first person to pay the new income tax in Chicago and perhaps the first in the United States was John C. Roth.

Mr. Roth is general manager of the company operating the Great Northern Hotel, South Dearborn street and West Jackson Boulevard.

Secrecy as to the amount to income scheduled was maintained by both Mr. Roth and the government officials, other than to say that it fell under the 1 per cent rating—from $4000 to $20,000.

Bay City Boosted as Location for Regional Bank Under New Currency Law

LOS ANGELES BANKERS ASK FOR BRANCH ONLY

Houston and McAdoo Are to Be Guests of Bankers at Banquet Tonight

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 4.—A delegation of Los Angeles bankers appeared before Secretary of the Treasury McAdoo and Secretary of Agriculture Houston at the federal building today and argued San Francisco's claims to form one of the eight regional banks authorized by the Glass-Steagall currency bill. President Stoddard Jess of the clearing house, J. M. Elliott, Joseph Sartori, John Perrin, bankers, spoke and urged San Francisco as the financial capital of the coast, and geographically perfectly located for the bank. They asked a branch for Los Angeles. The hearing will probably be concluded this afternoon.

Secretary McAdoo asked all the witnesses pointed questions about the banking business here and requested they file with the committee data concerning the practice of rediscounting, giving mortgages on growing crops and about anything that peculiarized the district. This will be used in drawing up rules for the regulations for regional banks. Stoddard Jess declared he believed the regional banks should be located at San Francisco, New York, Boston, Chicago, St. Louis, Minneapolis, Denver and Atlanta or New Orleans.

Discussing the eligibility of state banks to membership in the federal reserve, McAdoo said none would be eligible until loans had been reduced to a small percentage of the capital and that a reasonable time will be given to state banks to comply with the rules. He said this was not an official statement but merely an outline of the committee's feeling.

Morris Goldwater, president of the First National Bank at Prescott, Ariz., said that eight of the eleven national banks of Arizona favor San Francisco, two El Paso, and one Kansas City. Of the 21 state banks, four want Tucson; six, Los Angeles; one, Denver; four, El Paso; six, San Francisco. McAdoo then called upon some representative of the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce, none were present. The secretary remarked, "Your modesty is overpowering."

Banquet Tonight

Tonight McAdoo and Houston will be the guests of honor at a banquet at the Raymond, given by the bankers of this city and Pasadena. George M. Reynolds, president of the Continental and Commercial National Bank of Chicago, will be toastmaster and former Vice-President Fairbanks will be one of the guests of honor. Trips to the harbor and through the orange district will be taken tomorrow under the guidance of committees of the Chamber of Commerce. After a rest Friday, McAdoo and Houston will leave for El Paso to conduct another hearing.

Near 100-Millionaire Is Discovered in N. Y.

ALBANY, N. Y., Feb. 4.—The statement has just been made by the state inheritance tax appraiser that the estate of Anthony N. Brady, who died last year, will amount to $90,000,000. The final appraisal has not been made.

When Brady died many said he was worth about $40,000,000. Other guesses were as low as $25,000,000. Inasmuch as most estimates of large fortunes are exaggerated at the time of the owner's death, the latter estimate was accepted. Now, however, the authorities of New York state, who must make an appraisal in order to fix the inheritance tax, have learned that Brady was worth three or four times as much as most persons thought.

Most of his money was in public utilities, such as street car lines, light and water companies. He started in a very lowly position in Albany years ago, but by remarkable sagacity and energy he brought himself to the point where the Morgans and Rockefellers had to listen when he spoke.

ATTACKS NEW YORK STOCK EXCHANGE

Samuel Untermyer Says Money Interests Employ Press Agents to Color News

ATTACK MADE BEFORE SENATE BANK COMMITTEE

Hearings Began Today With View to Curbing Activities of New York Exchange

WASHINGTON, Feb. 4.—A bitter attack on the New York Stock Exchange was voiced before the Senate banking committee by Samuel Untermyer, attorney for the House committee recently investigating the money trust. He urged the compulsory incorporation of all stock exchanges under government supervision. He read copiously from the testimony taken during the money trust hearing, and declared that the money interests employed press agents to color the news and prepare attractive and misleading information. He said:

"The public is just now witnessing with amazement the spectacle of a silent metropolitan press, with a few honorable exceptions, over the exposure of mismanagement which ruined one of our great railroad systems, which is one of the greatest financial scandals of the age. Are the judgments of those controlling the organs of public opinion overawed by these powerful men?"

TO CURB NEW YORK EXCHANGE

WASHINGTON, Feb. 4.—Curbs on the activities of the New York Stock Exchange were proposed in bills on which the Senate banking committee today opened hearings. These measures would impose severe penalties for the use of the mails in connection with the speculative transactions.

Regarding the hearing, Senator Owen said: "We should like to have it known that we are not actuated by any spirit of hostility. We merely want to frame a bill that will correct the flagrant abuses which were so thoroughly shown up in the money trust investigation. We want to protect legitimate business and put an end to the use of the mails in promoting fraudulent speculations. We believe that we will have the sympathy of all honest financiers and business men in the work. The President, we know, is in sympathy with the general proposition for such legislation."

James B. Mahon, president of the New York Stock Exchange, headed a delegation which today protested against the legislation. In an interview, Mahon declared: "Our opposition is based on the rejection by the Hughes commission of the suggestion to incorporate exchanges and the defeat of the incorporation measure at Albany early last fall."

SAN DIEGO, Feb. 4.—Fearing death at the hands of the "Black Hand," Paul Auban, a French scissors grinder, who had received letters demanding money, shot and killed two unidentified men and probably fatally wounded a third when they attempted to enter his home this afternoon. The letters he received demanded $500 under pain of death.

Auban told the police that the men appeared at the house, tried the door, then attacked it with an ax, and he then fled. The men were Italians.

RATTLESNAKE IS "INDUSTRIAL HAZARD"

OLYMPIA, Wash., Feb. 4.—A country infested by rattlesnakes where road work is being done constitutes an "industrial hazard" and a workman bitten by a snake is entitled to compensation from the state industrial insurance fund, according to a ruling contained in a recent report of the State Industrial Insurance Commission. The decision today was formally made and entered in the case of a snake-bitten workman. "Since the country is inhabited by snakes," said the Commission's report, "their presence constitutes one of the hazards of the occupation of road building, and we hereby grant the man's claim for the injury benefit."

GOOD ROADS AS A CURE FOR HIGH COST OF LIVING

COLUMBUS, O., Feb. 4.—Lower the cost of living by improving the country roads, thereby giving the farmers easy access to the markets, which will encourage them to produce more. Heavier production means lower prices.

That's the theory of James R. Marker, state highway commissioner, who aims to give Ohio the best roads in the United States. Marker will have at his personal disposal this year $800,000 and every year thereafter for ten years there will be $3,500,000 at the disposal of the state highway commissioner for use on roads in the state.

"This fund means we will have the best schools, markets and community enterprises of all kinds," argues Marker. "Good roads mean better civilization because they bring persons in closer touch with one another." Work on rebuilding 9,233 miles of Ohio roads starts this spring and Marker predicts 1,000 miles will be completed by the end of the year. In ten years he expects to have accomplished the whole task.

GRANDMA NEVER LET HER HAIR GET GRAY

Kept Her Locks Dark, Thick,
Glossy, With Sage Tea
and Sulphur

When you darken your hair with Sage Tea and Sulphur, no one can tell, because it's done so naturally, so evenly. Preparing this mixture, though, at home is messy and troublesome. For 50 cents you can buy at any drug store the ready-to-use tonic called "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy." You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning all gray hair disappears, and, after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully darkened, glossy and luxuriant. You will also discover dandruff is gone and hair has stopped falling.

Gray, faded hair, though no disgrace, is a sign of old age, and as we all desire a youthful and attractive appearance, get busy at once with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur and look years younger.—Advertisement.

THE GAME WAS A ROUGH ONE

The Los Angeles Y. M. C. A.
Defeated Orange by Score of 24 to 20

(By Staff Correspondent.)
ORANGE, Feb. 4.—In a rough and tumble game played last evening in Los Angeles, the Orange Athletic Club basketball team lost out to the Los Angeles Y.M.C.A. The final score was 24 to 20.

Rough-house tactics featured the game all the way through, both sides offending frequently. Toward the close of the game, Murray, a Los Angeles forward, slugged Pister, the Orange guard. A fight was precipitated in which Murray was roughly handled. A general free-for-all threatened for a time, but order was finally restored, both men being put out of the game.

The first half ended with a score of 10 to 10. Early in the second half the Los Angeles team ran the score up to 20 to 13, but the Orange team rallied and came near pulling out ahead. Their start was too late, however, and the game ended 20 to 24.

A program will take place just after dinner and this will be followed by the business session.

QUIT MEAT IF YOUR KIDNEYS ACT BADLY

Take Tablespoonful of Salts if
Back Hurts or Bladder
Bothers

We are a nation of meat eaters and our blood is filled with uric acid, says a well-known authority, who warns us to be constantly on guard against kidney trouble.

The kidneys do their utmost to free the blood of this irritating acid, but become weak from the overwork; they get sluggish; the eliminative tissues clog and thus the waste is retained in the blood to poison the entire system.

When your kidneys ache and feel like lumps of lead, and you have stinging pains in the back or the urine is cloudy, full of sediment, or the bladder is irritable, obliging you to seek relief during the night; when you have severe headaches, nervous and dizzy spells, sleeplessness, acid stomach or rheumatism in bad weather, get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast each morning and in a few days your kidneys will act fine. This famous salt is made from the acids of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate clogged kidneys, to neutralize the acids in urine so it is no longer a source of irritation, thus ending urinary and bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is inexpensive and cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink, and nobody can make a mistake by taking a little occasionally to keep the kidneys clean and active.—Advertisement.

VIENNA, Feb. 4.—The Austrian diplomatic service is practically monopolized by the aristocracy, according to official data published here today. The ambassadors to foreign governments include one prince, seven counts, one baron, one "von," and only one commoner—the representative at Washington. Of the twenty ministers, one is a prince, seven are counts, seven barons, four "vons" and one commoner.

Among the secretaries and attaches there are four princes, thirty-one counts, twenty-three barons, five knights, eight "vons" and one commoner. In the Vienna foreign office there are thirteen counts, twenty-three barons, ten knights, twenty-two "vons" and only eight commoners.

SPLENDID WRITE-UP OF ORANGE COUNTY IN THE ARROWHEAD

D. W. McDannald Occupies Nine
Pages With Story of This Productive Section

D. W. McDannald, Orange county's representative in the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce, has added another notable event to his record of publicity achievements for this county. In the January number of The Arrowhead, a magazine published by the Salt Lake Railroad, is a nine-page article by McDannald on "Orange County, California—A Pleasing Story of This Wonderfully Rich Section of the Sunny Southland."

Not only is the article attractively written and full of the kind of information for which easterners hunger, but it is also well illustrated with some sixteen views of this county, to say nothing of McDannald's own countenance beaming forth under the title.

As usual, McDannald has neglected no section, and has endeavored evidently to give every part of the county its full share of mention.

The roads which are needed the most and which the board of supervisors will be asked to push are the Stanton, the La Habra and the Placentia roads.

good roads system excepting the Stanton road which is a short stretch of a little over two miles which was formerly in the city limits of Stanton until that section of the city was discontinued, thus throwing this stretch of road back onto the county to pave.

It was learned from Supervisor Schumacher that the work on the La Habra and the Placentia roads would be pushed through to completion as fast as possible, but that it would not be possible for anything to be done about the Stanton road until after July, when the supervisors will have more money to work with. The contractors are now working on the county road, but the Stanton stretch will have to be left unpaved until money can be appropriated for it.

FOUR IN EVERY $300.00 SPURIOUS. SAY EXPERTS

WASHINGTON, Feb. 4.—If you have $100,000 in silver and $200,000 in bills did away in a woolen sock under the mattress or hoarded in a tin box under an apple tree you are probably hoarding $4 in counterfeit money.

Nobody knows just how much bad money is in circulation, for obviously a perfect counterfeit could never be detected. But perfection is as scarce among bad bills as it is among good men, and after close tabulations covering a period of a year the United States secret service has come to the conclusion that not more than $3 in every $100,000 of silver nor more than $1 in every $200,000 of bills is spurious.

To the secret service office there goes eventually every piece of counterfeit money discovered. It is the great purifying plant of the stream of our national currency, though it is only one of its vital functions. The appearance of a new counterfeit is to the secret service what the clang of the gong is to a fire department. No matter how astute the counterfeiter, he cannot carry his operations far until the service "has a line on him," his methods, accomplices, and general characteristics, and his apprehension is usually but a matter of days. There is an erroneous idea, very generally held, that paper money is printed on paper manufactured by a secret process which is carefully guarded from the public. The truth is that almost any paper house could make the identical paper were it not prohibited by law from doing so. The matter of getting the silk fibres into the fabric is comparatively simple, and the appearance of these tiny shreds, often cleverly imitated with a fine pen, not infrequently induces the inexperienced to accept a counterfeit bill of which they are suspicious.

With the development of photo-engraving the shady art of counterfeiting received a big impetus. Prior to that industry only experts could hope to produce bills that would pass even casual inspection. And as man's handwork always expresses his individuality, the "thumb print" of every counterfeiter was literally on every bill he put out.

Today, however, bills may be duplicated by a purely mechanical process. But the lines are heavy and uneven, and while such a reproduction may get by an inexperienced clerk, the expert can spot it at a glance.

OLD LONDON SEAL TO BE PRESERVED AS FAMOUS RELIC

LONDON, Feb. 4.—The old mayoral city seal after all is not to be broken up, but will be preserved for its great historical interest.

It bears the earliest known representation of the city's coat of arms, and so desirable is the Court of Aldermen for its perfect preservation that on its withdrawal it was not even defaced by the customary method of cutting a groove across it. It was simply "damasked" by the ceremonial tap with a small hammer.

An interesting history attaches to the old city seal. It bears the image of St. Thomas a Becket and St. Paul, and when Henry VIII ordered the destruction of all images and pictures of the former throughout the realm the common seal of the city of London, which bore his effigy, was destroyed. But the mayoral seal was by error described in official records as depicting St. Peter instead of St. Thomas, and it is to this fortunate mistake that it no doubt owes its preservation.

BRIBERS RECEIVE PRISON SENTENCE AND $1000 FINES

NEW YORK, Feb. 4.—Convicted of conspiring to sell his seat on the state supreme court bench, Joseph Cassidy, former Democratic boss of Queens county, was today sentenced to fifteen months in the penitentiary and fined $1000. Former Congressman William Willett, Jr., convicted of buying his nomination, received a similar sentence, and Lewis Walter, Cassidy's associate, was given a three months sentence and a fine of $1000.

A CHILD'S LAXATIVE IS "SYRUP OF FIGS"

Made from Fruit—Can't Harm
Tender Stomach, Liver and Bowels

If your little one's tongue is coated, it is a sure sign the stomach, liver and bowels need a gentle, thorough cleansing at once. When your child is cross, peevish, listless, pale, doesn't sleep, eat or act naturally; if breath is bad, stomach sour, system full of cold, throat sore, or if feverish, give a tea spoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the clogged-up, constipated waste, sour bile and undigested food will gently move out of the bowels, and you have a well, playful child again.

Sick children needn't be coaxed to take this harmless "fruit laxative." Millions of mothers keep it handy because they know its action on the stomach, liver and bowels is prompt and sure. They also know a little given today saves a sick child tomorrow.

Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which contains directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly on the bottle. Beware of counterfeits sold here. Get the genuine, made by "California Fig Syrup Company." Don't be fooled!—Advertisement.

MRS. MCCANN IS VICE PRESIDENT OF CIVIL SERVICE COMMISSION

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 4.—In recognition of the splendid service she has rendered the city since her appointment to the civil service commission in October, 1912, Mrs. David Chambers McCann was elected vice president of the commission yesterday by her colleagues. Mrs. McCann is probably the only woman in the world serving on a civil service commission.

CARPENTIER WILL NEVER MEET JOHNSON

PARIS, Feb. 4.—It is not believed here today that Georges Carpentier, the French champion heavyweight of Europe will ever meet Jack Johnson, the black. Carpentier is not yet grown, being still under 20 years of age and though still growing it will be several years before he attains his full weight and solidity. Until then his managers would scarcely risk a bout with the negro fighter. It is considered here as quite likely that Carpentier may become champion of the world later, winning from Johnson's successor. It would be the first time France ever held such a championship.

THE U. S. HAS GIVEN MOST MONEY TO THE VATICAN

ROME, Feb. 4.—The United States led the entire world in its donations to the Vatican in 1913 for the carrying on of missionary work. The total American contribution was nearly $400,000. England contributed only $20,000, and Austria which is the most loyal Catholic country in the world gave $12,000. An appeal had been made by Pope Pius for increased donations during the year as a result of the Vatican's celebration of Constantine year. The results show that the United States was the only country which actually responded by giving more than in previous years.

THE APPROPRIATION BILLS

Though the proposed anti-trust laws now have the spot light in congress, the regular appropriation bills come home quite as close to where people really live. The correspondents do not mention them much, unless representatives become belligerent, but the money-spending of our legislators should not escape with this slight scrutiny.

Much is being said at Washington, and it is good talk, about the need for economy. But one should remember that a sure way to get applause in congress is to demand economy, and also that a sure way of being defeated for re-election is to refuse to vote for appropriations that help your own district.

Every one laughs at the absurd duplication of needless army posts, for which the United States pays a heavy bill. Yet if the appropriation for a single one of these posts is cut out, congress is flooded with petitions and letters of protest from boards of trade, mayors, governors, city councils and citizens.

The river and harbor act of 1910 contained appropriations for 296 congressional districts out of 391. It was a marvel of "pork barrel" legislation and spoils distribution. It is an easy thing to get an initial grant of $100,000 on a $2,000,000 project. Then a like sum it sure every year, on the ground that otherwise the money previously spent will be wasted.

It has always been customary for each cabinet minister in this country to hand in a bill of what he wanted, regardless of what any other department asked. This is the only civilized government in the world where the administration has always assumed so little responsibility for the total amount of money expended.

Congress will be extravagant just as long as the congressmen are sent to Washington primarily to get jobs for constituents and expensive improvements for their own districts.

FIGHTING CHANCE FOR PROHIBITION

More than fifty-four thousand names are appended to the petitions for an initiative measure, calling for a popular vote on state-wide prohibition, now on file with the secretary of state at Sacramento. The signatories are residents of thirty-five of the fifty-eight counties of California which argues a fairly strong army to be arrayed against the anti-prohibition sentiment when the question of amending the constitution comes to a vote next November. The proposal to be submitted is drastic in its nature; it is, as the Sacramento Bee notes, "a real prohibition measure," which, if enacted, will close every brewery, distillery, and winery in the state, exclude every saloon and make the "blind pig" business dangerous to operate.

We admire the courage of the enthusiastic advocates of a "dry" state, but question the expediency of the movement. There would be greater likelihood of success if the change sought were more gradually introduced. If the lighter wines were excluded from the proposed prohibitory law, whose elimination means a death blow to the grape-growing industry of the state, there would be silenced a powerful sympathizing element that will now be found antagonizing the measure. However, the spirit of "no compromise with principles" evidenced by the prohibitionists is so consistent that even if one disagrees with such views one is impelled to respect the steadfastness of the proponents. It is certain that the coming contest for supremacy will be no dilettante affair and if the edict of a "dry" state is pronounced the result will be due in a large measure to the unrestrained evils that have been allowed to invade the liquor business, to the detriment of public morals, without hindrance from those competent to abolish them.

As the Riverside Press, a conservative supporter of statewide prohibition, admits, the outlook for success of the movement while not conducive to sanguine predictions is yet sufficiently encouraging to give the brewers, wine-growers and saloon men generally cause to fear the ballot to be cast next November. It is well to remember that Southern California, where the sentiment is more pronounced in favor of prohibition, now harbors 181 dry cities and towns. One-fourth of the population of the state is under no-license. Three cities of more than 10,000 inhabitants have no saloons—Berkeley, Riverside and Pasadena—and in the last eighteen months 818 saloons in California have been closed by the ballot. If the state should go "dry" it will be the tenth in the Union of similar record—Georgia, Kansas, Maine, Mississippi, North

Rapid Development of A Big Harbor Project

RICHMOND, Cal., Feb. 4.—The approval and acceptance on behalf of the United States government of the Richmond Inner Harbor project by the Board of Engineers for Rivers and Harbors at Washington, with accompanying recommendations for appropriations is the quickest harbor project approval on record, according to Colonel Thomas H. Rees, chief of army engineers on the Pacific coast, who made the survey. The campaign started with the visit of Colonel Rees to this city two years ago last July.

Richmond, which now claims 18,000 population and is the home of some of the biggest manufacturing plants on this coast, had 100 people in 1901, just after the Santa Fe established its terminal here. Its natural deep water front has been taken up so fast that its citizens determined to construct the inner harbor. The success of the campaign is an illustration of what active development work will do for a community.

The new harbor will consist of a main channel 10,800 feet long to deep water in the vicinity of the Santa Fe wharves. This channel will connect with a basin at the southern edge of the city, 1800 feet in width between the pierhead lines and 10,000 feet long, with an arm for lighter shipping extending north. The basin will be dredged 3000 feet under the opening plan, the rest to be dredged as money is obtainable. The initial depth of the main channel and basin will be 24 feet, to be increased to 30 feet. All other depths are 20 feet.

This will be a city-owned, free harbor. There will be reclaimed 333 acres of land alongside it, to be owned by the city. Richmond has voted $1,170,000 in bonds for this project and the $250,000 municipal tunnel, now under construction. The Army Board of Engineers has recommended a preliminary total appropriation of $425,000, to be apportioned at yearly intervals as the city does its share of the work. The first unit of the project will cost about $2,000,000 and the total cost will be something like $4,000,000. Efforts will be made to get larger appropriations from the government as the work proceeds.

Woman's Fads and Fancies

NEW YORK, Feb. 4.—Yes indeed, the first fruits of Fashion are oranges. Orange hued hair is all the rage and even the newest complexions are verging on the orange skin. Counters flaunting the new spring fabrics in the faces of Fashion's followers fairly reek with the bilious silk bulk and jaundiced lengths of orange hued eponge, ratine, voile, marquisette and crepe. Many are solid one-toned effects while others are broken up into orange and white checks and stripes in a truly eggy manner. Some of the exquisitely sheer voiles and crepes even go farther on their fruity way and show sprays of oranges in the natural tints hand stenciled on their filmy surfaces.

There is little doubt that femininity will take kindly to this orange fad, for every woman knows that orange trees bear both fruit and flower simultaneously. It is not a wild hope to cherish therefore that orange blossoms may be the legitimate fruits of a fetching orange costume. Besides, Nell Gwynn was an orange girl and she won a king. As a timely Fashion tip, however, you would do well not to adopt the orange color scheme too profusely until after the 17th of March.

Next to looking like an orange the best fashion bet for early spring is to disguise yourself like an awning. Widely striped ratines, voiles and organdies in all the combinations of red, blue, green, yellow or brown stripes, with white are startlingly stunning and a boon to portly figures. The passion for pink panties, petticoats and other personal pretences seems to know no limit, and all of Lady Dainty's spring underwear glows and blushes with the faintest rosy tint of dawn. Recklessly combined with the frank openness of all-over net no wonder the nighties, combinations, chemises and knickers blush. Some of the very latest lingerie is entirely allover net with just a few pink ribbons and rosebuds added for warmth.

What the net results will be you dare not think, but with these in lieu of the wooden underwear that Grandma used to affect it is at least cheering to reflect that spring is near.

Detachable tunics are things of beauty and joy forever as well as veritable life-savers to the damsel whose wardrobe purse is slender and whose wardrobe needs are large. A tunic of chiffon edged in fur or wired with rose buds will transform your lone evening gown completely. Worn with the tunic tonight and without it tomorrow you get the credit for a versatility of frocks. A tunic of Roman stripe or Scotch plaid silk in blending tones adds a piquant and refreshing change to your tailored suit, and converts it into a dressy afternoon costume, and there you are.

A tunic in time saves nine or so frocks to your season's credit.

Dame Fashion doesn't disdain to get hints from the getup of a dresser or a cowboy. They all look alike to her when she is stalking a style. Snatching the bandana from the neck of the cowpuncher and the peon she proceeds to swathe it around the lily throat of a society queen.

In plain words the last word in collar effects is a piece of material cut to simulate a knotted handkerchief and draped carelessly and loosely about your neck.

A dream of a summer hat with a muff to match is shown in the window of one of the smartest hat shops on Fifth Avenue. The chapeau which is a large garden hat of leghorn, has the brim completely veiled in tur-

WORTH KNOWING

The best way to clean the bean pot: Fill with cold water, put in some kind of washing powder and cover tight. Put on the stove and let come to a boil. This will make it easy to wash.

No doubt every housewife knows she should not break the skin of the beet roots before boiling, or they will be almost white instead of a nice deep red. Perhaps all do not know that if the raw beet root should be bruised or broken a touch with a red hot poker will form a new skin.

When the egg poacher is not handy, use the lid of a syrup can, which proves very good for the same purpose.

Ivory knife handles which have yellowed may be whitened by soaking them in alum water which has been boiled. The water must be allowed to cool and the ivory should be left soaking for an hour. Then brush them with a nail brush and dry thoroughly with a soft towel.

The secret of washing with kerosene added to whiten the clothes is to use hot water for the rinsing. This also removes every trace of odor and leaves the garments white.—Chicago Post.

IN EXTREMIS

Late one night a clergyman was called out to minister to an old man a worker upon the adjacent railway—who was supposed to be dying. The summons was brought by another old man, the elder brother of the stricken one. While he was bustling about, making preparations for departure, the clergyman forgot momentarily the social status of his visitor and asked: "Is he in extremis?"

The old man was not going to be beaten. "Aye, he's right in, your reverence." After a pause he added as a clincher: "Clean in, poor chap; right up to the neck, sir."—Cornhill Magazine.

To Preserve Oilcloth
To ruin them, clean them with hot water or soap suds, and leave them half wiped, and they will look very bright while wet, but will soon crack and peel off. But if you wish to preserve them, and have them look new and nice, wash them with soft flannel and lukewarm water, and wipe perfectly dry. If you want them to look extra nice, after they are dry, drop a few spoonfuls of milk over them and rub with a dry cloth.—San Jose Times-Star.

REOPEN "TAP LINE" CASES
WASHINGTON, Feb. 4.—Reopening of the "tap line cases" for further hearing and argument on the fundamental questions involved was made today by the Interstate Commerce Commission, as the result of closing decisions of the Commerce Court against the commission's previous rulings. The case involves the right of railroads and industrial corporations to maintain "tap lines" to factories, and in times past has been used as a convenient method of granting rebates to shippers. The court held that the Interstate Commerce Commission had sufficient power to regulate any rebating practices.

By special arrangement with the Pacific Pharmaceutical Company of San Diego, we have secured the right to give genuine Sulphur Baths at our natatorium, using the famous concentrated liquid sulphur preparation "Sulphobath."

This preparation is the invention of a California physician who having cured himself of rheumatism by taking sulphur baths succeeded, after years of experimenting, in overcoming the seemingly impossible, by liquifying sulphur.

Under the name of "Sulphobath" it is put on the market and from the very numerous testimonials testifying to its wonderful merits "Sulphobath" will come as a boon and a blessing to the residents of Santa Ana.

C. E. RALLY TONIGHT

Local Endeavorers Will Join in Meeting at the First Presbyterian Church

Continuing the activities of Christian Endeavor week, which Santa Ana, in common with the rest of the country, is observing, a rally of Santa Ana Endeavorers of all the churches will be held tonight at 7:30 o'clock in the First Presbyterian church. At 8 o'clock there will be a "Missionary Meeting," which will be addressed by Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Thompson, who have just returned from the Japan mission field. All Endeavorers and others interested are cordially invited to attend this meeting.

A big feature of the week was the county C. E. Rally held last night at the Presbyterian church in Orange at which John Makins of San Diego and Jay Walker of San Diego were scheduled to speak. A stereoscopic lecture was the feature of the evening. The Santa Ana societies were well represented, the young people from the various C. E. societies of this city going over to Orange in automobiles.

Tomorrow night at the First Presbyterian church, the Christian Endeavorers will attend the regular prayer meeting of the church prepared to take some part in the meeting. The same procedure will doubtless be observed by the Endeavorers of the other churches.

Friday night at the First Presbyterian church a Curiosity Social, beginning at 7:30, will be held for the young people of the church. The First Baptist Christian Endeavorers on the same night will hold a social at the J. W. Taylor home, 918 F street, and all young people, especially strangers and those not members of any Christian Endeavor society, are invited.

Herbert Rankin to Speak
Herbert P. Rankin, State Christian Endeavor general secretary, will be one of the speakers at the Los Angeles county Christian Endeavor convention to be held at Pomona on Feb. 20. This is expected to be the largest convention ever held by the county union, which has 6000 members. A delegated attendance will be 1200, and the entire attendance of delegates and visitors is expected to be 3000.

Miss Nettie McFarland of Pomona will be chairman of the convention, the first woman to fill such a position in the history of the society. A chorus of 300 voices, under rehearsal for months past, will lead the singing. An Endeavor street parade will be introduced at Pomona, and a street song service will be held on Feb. 21. In addition to Mr. Rankin, other well known Endeavorers who will speak are as follows: Rev. H. W. Luce, Shantung University, China; Paul C. L. Brown, state field secretary; Dr. John Baicam Shaw, Dr. W. Leon Tucker, Dr. Lapsley A. McAfee, state pastoral counselor; Rev. R. A. Hadden, and Rev. John H. Hunter.

WAR COMRADES MEET

Santa Anans and Guests Dine at Orange With "Old Boys" on Anniversary

Dr. and Mrs. W. L. Cuthbert of Long Beach are guests of Dr. and Mrs. I. D. Mills. Dr. Cuthbert was regimental surgeon of the Eighty-third Illinois Volunteers, and Mrs. Mills was a nurse in that regiment in the late Civil War. The Cuthberts and Dr. and Mrs. Mills were among the guests who were yesterday entertained at luncheon with a number of other members of the Eighty-third and their families, by Mr. and Mrs. S. R. Smith, of the same regiment, of Orange. The guests of honor were Mr. John Paine and daughter and granddaughter, of Monmouth, Ill. Yesterday was the anniversary of the date on which the last battle at Ft. Donelson, Tenn., was fought, and in which these veterans participated. Needless to say that yesterday's event was a most enjoyable one. The day's reminiscences took the veterans back over the track of 50 years with a stop now and then to note the passing to "The Beyond" of many of their comrades who had come to Southern California to make their homes, notably Walter Paine of Orange, and R. D. Russell of Claremont.

"One by one these veterans fall With their faces toward the sun, Eternal life for them assured As their life work here is done. We say good-bye with a fervent hope Of meeting soon again, Where no cannon's roar or deed of blood Shall bring fear or death or pain."

WOMAN'S CLUB MET

Moving Pictures Discussed; Are They Merit or Evil?—Annual Birthday Feast Friday

The Woman's Club met yesterday at the home of Mrs. B. Uttley, the club president. At roll call the members responded in a novel way by giving "The Sayings of Children." A variety of amusing remarks were given.

The subject for the day was "The Moving Picture Show." A round table discussion on the topic was led by Mrs. Chas. S. Shaw and proved a very interesting and animated one. All the members talked freely, and the main thoughts were: "How can we legislate or censor moving pictures?" and "Will the public be educated to demand only the best?" More unfavorable criticism was given of the vaudeville features than the moving picture reels. While the majority endorsed the moving pictures in general and admitted that pictures can be made educational as well as entertaining, many declared that bad examples were shown, nerves were shocked, eyes weakened and so on. One lady said: "No invention has been so great a blessing to the working classes especially, and it is the abuse and not the use of the moving pictures that is deplored."

A good article was read of the great work being done in New York to place the Bible stories before the public, which would be a great uplift to society in general. The board of censors has a difficult task to please both the public and the managers.

There was a large attendance of members yesterday and the meeting was a most profitable one. It was announced that the annual birthday dinner will be held Friday noon, Feb. 6, at the home of Mrs. R. H. English, 108 South Main street. All the members are requested to attend this annual social event.

The Spurgeon Parent-Teacher Association met yesterday with about thirty-five mothers and teachers present. The kindergarten room was gayly decorated with bunting, flags, calla lilies and acacia boughs. The meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. Darnell, and after a short business session Superintendent Cranston gave a short talk on the subject of "School Gardens."

The kindergarten teacher, Miss Whipple, thanked the association for the gift of a picture of an Italian Madonna.

At the social hour the ladies were given a delightful surprise. A large cake decorated with tiny flags and a single candle was given a place of honor, and Mrs. Crissman, chairman of the program committee, explained that Spurgeon school was one year old and that this was the Spurgeon birthday cake. To Superintendent Cranston fell the honor of cutting the first piece. The cake contained, besides spices and other materials for cake, a ring, a penny, a thimble and a button. Mrs. Hansen found the button, Mrs. Townsend the penny, Mrs. Lamar the thimble, and amid great merriment, Miss Cleveland, the first grade teacher found the ring.

Each member wore or carried something indicative of her birthday month, and there was a varied assortment of umbrellas, flowers, fans and parasols, pumpkins, and Halloween, Valentine and Christmas symbols.

The refreshment committee served coffee, doughnuts, and tiny water hatches with cherries embedded in the handles. This was one of the most pleasant meetings of the association, and will be long remembered by the members. The next meeting will occur on March 3, at which time a date for a box social will be set.

Classes to Meet

The business meeting of the Baraca and Philathea classes was held at the Spurgeon Memorial church Tuesday evening. At the close of the evening refreshments were served by the Philathea class.

Delightful Tea

One of the most delightful teas of the M. E. Church, South was given Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. A. N. Zerman as hostess. Mrs. Zerman had arranged an unique entertainment for her guests. The tea was to be given in the nature of a welcome to the new members Mrs. Kirvin, the president.

The Ladies' Aid of the First Congregational Church held an all-day meeting today of which quilting was one of the main features. A prominent event of the day was the noon dinner at which the husbands of the ladies and friends of the church were the guests. It was a chicken dinner, excellently cooked and served with appropriate accessories. Mrs. A. J. Cookbank, Mrs. E. M. Nealey and Mrs. W. S. Rose were the hostesses for the day. Bougainvillea was used in table decoration.

FIRST POLICEWOMAN IS A SUFFRAGETTE

Mrs. Alice S. Wells, California's first policewoman, who is one of several female bluecoats in Los Angeles, believes that suffrage for women will solve the servant girl problem.

"Just give the girls a chance to vote," said she, "and it will dignify their work so they will be willing to go into the kitchen." Mrs. Wells admitted that few American girls wanted to work in kitchens, but she thought that due largely to the fact that women could not vote.

was called upon to give the welcome address and she responded in a gracious and charming manner. Following this, the ladies were given hand-painted cards, on the back of which were twenty-two letters, from which they were requested to make a sentence of five words. Thinking caps were donned, and it was found that the letters constituted the following sentence: "Welcome to our new members."

Misses Zerman and Bevil rendered two beautiful piano duets for the pleasure of the guests, and Mrs. Jesse Albright delighted her hearers with three vocal selections.

Then came the "weenie" bake, the last but not the least. Mrs. Zerman had artistically arranged two fire-places, in one of which hung a large coffee pot, and in the other were weenies to bake. The refreshments were served in caterina style and were greatly enjoyed by all. The ladies then very reluctantly bade the hostess and her helpers good bye, hoping the doors of this pleasant home would again be opened to them in the future.

Students' Recital

Last night the following program was given by the piano pupils of Virginia Johnston at her studio, 117 E. Fourth street: Part I—First Waltz (Schonell), Gladys Blanchard; duet (Diabelli), Paul Irvine and Miss Johnston; Jumping Rope (Willis), Luella Harmon; First Piece (Gurlitt), Beatrice Barrios; Shadow Pictures (Rheinhold), Grace Cargay; in a Boat (Norris), Mildred Ward; (a) Blackbird (Schiller), (b) The Excursion (Loeschhorn), Jewel Blankenship; Wilson Part II—(a) Joyous Pastimes, Dorothy (Seymour Smith), Bessie Bower; Steerman's Song (Teller), Blanche Irvine; Sweet Remembrance (Wilkes), Wellesley Webber; Fugue (Beethoven), Mirlie Wilson; Berceuse from "Jocelyn" (Godard), Nellie Irvine.

Much appreciation was shown by the audience for the thorough and artistic work of the students.

Northside Club

Mrs. Fred Robinson was hostess yesterday afternoon to the ladies of the Northside Club. Reading and chat and fancy needlework occupied the attention of the ladies. Delicious refreshments were served by the hostess. St. Valentine's decorations were used. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Meacham.

PLOTLESS MUSICAL COMEDY WITNESSED BY A FULL HOUSE

Musical comedies never were supposed to have much plot, but "The Candy Shop," which was at the Grand Opera House last night, has forgotten or lost whatever plot it may have had. However, it does not pretend to have a plot, for it calls itself the "spotless and plotless fashion, fun and song show," and in so doing it quite well describes itself.

That a plot is an unnecessary adjunct to a musical comedy was proven last night to any person present who might have had a lingering doubt on the subject. Even the wicker detective who went forth looking for the girl with a mole on her elbow failed to find her. They might have made that much concession to plot, for certainly out of the two score good looking girls of various sizes on the stage a sleuth ought to have been able to have found at least one elbow with a mole on it.

There were plenty of "glad rags" to make up the fashion end of the "fashion, fun and song," mentioned in the description. Costumes were good, though some of them quite scanty, both above and below. For the fun the producers had furnished an excellent array of laugh-makers, and dancers, and for the song there was as much of it as could well be expected to be crowded into an evening's performance.

William Rock and Maude Fulton, featured in the advertisements as the best of the stage specialists in the company, never failed to make good in the numerous times they appeared. The house was sold out last night and those who were there were glad they were there, and probably will go again should "The Candy Shop" come this way a second time.

PHILOSOPHY CLUB ON OCCULT TOPIC

Psychic Phenomena Traced by E. M. Nealley—Delightful Talk by Miss Dresser

With about 90 people in attendance at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Crookshank, the Philosophy Club last evening considered the subject of "Psychic Phenomena." Mr. Nealley traced the history of occult manifestations from primitive times down to the modern scientific investigations made by the Society for Psychical Research. Psychic phenomena may be grouped under the following general heads: Hypnotism, trances, telepathy, clairvoyance, clairaudience, prevision and premonition, hallucinations and spiritism. Each of these heads was discussed and explained, and the various theories put forward to account for them were examined.

The history of spiritism in this country had its beginning with the Fox sisters about 1848. A wave of mental science, animal magnetism, clairvoyance, spiritism, etc., swept over the eastern part of the United States. The atmosphere was charged with the occult, ranging all the way from Mesmerism and "rappings" to German Transcendentalism. From this country it spread to England. Certain remarkable mediums appeared about this time, notably Andrew Jackson Davis, Daniel D. Home, Florence Cook and William Stainton Moses.

Owing to the fact that the conditions in this field are peculiarly favorable to imposture, charlatanism and quackery, it becomes the first task of the scientific investigator to sift the evidence. In addition to this element, there is the further element of psychological illusion to guard against. There is an extreme susceptibility on the part of many persons in the presence of mystery, an expectant attitude that is fatal to scientific judgments. It was for this purpose that the Society for Psychical Research was formed in 1882. From the start this society has been in the hands of eminent scientists, and all their investigations have been conducted under test conditions that absolutely eliminate fraud.

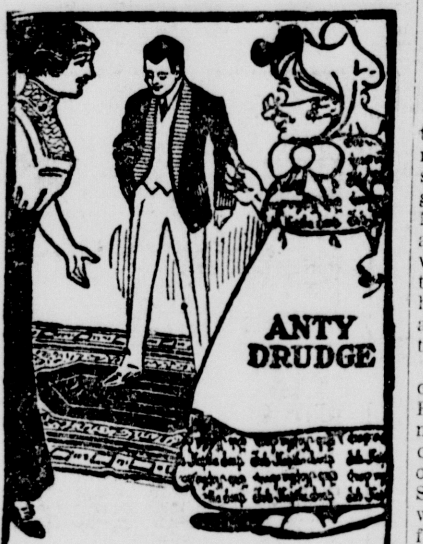

The net result of the work of the society is this: Eliminating fraud, illusion and chance coincidences, there remains an unexplained element. Certain persons, called "psychics," "sensitives," or "mediums," possess a channel of supernatural knowledge, that is, knowledge not gained through the ordinary channels of the senses. The question thus narrows down to this: There is something there. What is it? Out of this inquiry have grown two general groups of answers, (1) supernormal, and (2) superhuman or supernatural. More specifically, the various theories advanced to account for these phenomena are: (1) disincarnate spirits, (2) telepathic access to other minds, on the part of the medium, filling the role suggested to it from without and employing telepathy, (4) the theory of a "world-soul" or enveloping sea of consciousness, in which our human selves have their roots in a common soil, (5) some unknown force or law.

Mr. Nealley summed up the question by expressing the belief that we do not as yet possess sufficient evidence to warrant a definite conclusion. The evidence of spirit return is vague, unsatisfactory and unconvincing. The hypothesis of telepathic communication between subliminal consciousness seems to afford as satisfactory an explanation, in our present stage of inquiry, as that of spirit communication. The attitude of the scientific inquirer should be that of suspended judgment until further and more decisive evidence is obtained.

A delightful feature of the evening was a short talk by Miss C. E. Dresser, giving some account of the life and work of Thompson Jay Hudson, whose book, "The Law of Psychic Phenomena" contributed greatly to the scientific study of these questions. Miss Dresser was a close friend of Mr. Hudson and his family, and was able to relate many interesting personal incidents regarding the author and his theories of the "subjective mind" which were developed in his book. Mr. Hudson was a lawyer by profession and connected with the patent office at Washington. He was in every way fitted by heredity and training for the work of psychological investigation, and his work and views commanded the respect of Harvard professors and scientific men everywhere. Mr. Hudson accepted the telepathic explanation of mediumistic phenomena and stoutly opposed the spiritistic hypothesis.

LAND REMAINS AS IN DEEDS

Judgment for Defendant is Too Many Against it, and Garden Grove Pleased With Result

Stipulating judgment for the defendant, the trial of the action of Blin Whitney and his brothers against their aunt, Mrs. Ruah Pitten, was ended at its start this morning. The action involved land at Orange worth $20,000.

The Whitney brothers as plaintiffs asserted that their aunt poisoned the mind of their grandfather, I. H. Matthews, against them and caused him to deed his land to Mrs. Pitten before his death, leaving nothing for the grandchildren. The complaint declared that Mrs. Pitten used undue influence to get the deeds. The defense denied undue influence of any kind. Melrose & Ames were attorneys for the plaintiffs and Keech & Davis for the defendant.

In court today it was announced that judgment was stipulated in favor of the woman.

BOARD OF SUPERVISORS

PETITION DIES

Judgment for Defendant is Too Many Against it, and Garden Grove Pleased With Result

There will be no Orangewood school district formed this year. The petition asking for the formation of a new district west of the Santa Ana river of territory taken from the Orange, Garden Grove and Katella school districts was denied by the Board of Supervisors this morning on a showing by Allan Knapp of Garden Grove and others that a majority of the people of the district do not want the proposed new school district.

There was an argument as to whether or not the portion of the Garden Grove district proposed to be taken into the new district could be held responsible for its proportion of the bonded indebtedness of the Garden Grove district. The law was read by the district attorney showing that it was up to the Board of Supervisors to determine how much should be borne by the territory leaving the old district. County Superintendent of Schools Mitchell recommended the denial of the petition.

Petition Granted
On Mitchell's recommendation, a petition asking for transferring part of Centralia district to Cypress school district was granted for the territory as outlined by Mitchell.

Bids for Trees
The supervisors received twenty-seven bids for 1,000 orange trees to be delivered at the county farm at West Orange. Bids ranged all the way from forty-eight cents a tree to $1 a tree. The supervisors will inspect the trees of various bidders this afternoon.

Make a Fixed Price
Sheriff Riddock was called before the board in regard to fixing a price for the rental of Riddock's automobile by the county for the use of the sheriff's office. The board ordered that the price be $2.50 per hour running time and $1 per hour standing time.

Andy Lasswell of Orange was granted a fumigator's license.

Publicity Literature
For the use of the Associated Chambers of Commerce, the county purchased 1000 copies of the Quarter-Centennial edition of the Santa Ana Register.

For the use of the Associated Chambers of Commerce and of D. W. McDannald in the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce, 1500 copies of The Arrowhead, the Salt Lake Railroad magazine, containing McDannald's Orange county article, were purchased.

Wants Road Cleared.
W. K. Robinson stated to the supervisors that a county road in Trabuco canyon for three or four miles above the Crookshank ranch has been plowed up in a number of places and otherwise obstructed. The district attorney was instructed to notify Jerome O'Neill, Walter and Frank Wakeham and George Ross to open the road. Robinson stated that a deed of the road was given by Richard O'Neill when this county was a part of Los Angeles county.

FUNERAL SERVICES FOR MRS. L. C. SKINNER

The funeral services of Mrs. L. C. Skinner were held yesterday afternoon at the H. G. Hull residence with Rev. Otto S. Russell conducting the rites. He spoke impressively of the lovable woman lying peacefully at rest in the midst of a wealth of lovely flowers sent by friends to voice mutely their esteem and affection.

The quartet from the First Baptist church, composed of Miss Balcom, Miss Havens, Messrs. Hickox and Benjamin, sang "Nearer, My God, to Thee" and "Crossing the Bar". The body was shipped East today, the destination being Nunda, New York, where Mrs. Skinner formerly lived. Mrs. H. G. Hull, daughter of the deceased, accompanied the remains.

The Final Wind-up

A 9-Day Sale with a Definite Purpose

THIS is not a "sensational" nor an "opportunity of your life" Sale—but a truthful, candid business proposition, to be read and considered as such. For nine years it has been the custom of Vandermast & Son to hold but two big sales a year—one in February and one in September. There are smaller special sales held at various times when occasion demands it; but only twice each year when conditions call for the upsetting of prices on every article in the entire stock (except a few restricted price lines.) The twice-yearly time is now at hand. Box after box of Spring goods are being unpacked and we want to clear the decks; we want to start the new season fresh; without carrying over any present stocks. It means the loss of all profits—but we are willing to pay the price.

For Just Nine Days---Beginning Feb. 5 and Positively Closing Feb. 14

Every Article in Our Stock will be sold at prices from 10 to 50 per cent less than regular value

You know that everything you buy here is backed by a guarantee as good as gold. You know that every price reduction we make is genuine and that every printed promise we make will be fulfilled to the letter. This sale means much to the man who would economize. You can buy cheap goods at a cheap price anytime, but the opportunity seldom occurs when you are offered the best products from the best makers of America at a cost less than you must pay for the worthless imitations. The following is only a general idea of the many opportunities to save.
